Monaco

Everyday, I keep on lying to you
I just don't know what to do, but I do
So leave me alone, I just wanna stay here at home
So far away from whatever some might say or some might do
Just as I thought, I've found someone that needs me
Someone that needs me so much
And just as before, it's that someone who needs me
Someone I needed so much
But it's you, spinning me out of control
Hurting me deep in my soul, so I'm told
I just wanna stop, 'cos nothing's as bad as it seems
And I can't be bothered so stay awhile and tell me what it all means Just as I thought, I've found someone that needs me
Someone that needs me so much
And just as before, it's that someone who needs me
Someone I needed so much
Now, I'll tell you the truth 'bout what I should do
Why I can't stand you no more
There's a time and a place, my life's such a waste
And everything had to go wrong, it's just what I needed
Just as I thought, I've found someone that needs me
Someone that needs me so much
And just as before, it's that someone who needs me
Someone I needed so much
