The Awakening

Awaken the Empire

Please tie me down and pin my eyelids back Now gag my mouth and lets begin Give me your sweet sedation give me your sirens tongue remove the walls before my lips and I just want to say Good night, not good bye..
and I just want.. to say...

Open your eyes Open your eyes
and see The Awakening
give me your pain seduction give me your poison kiss give me your liars mouth give me your frozen breath give me your tainted arrow give me your blackened heart give me your sweet infection Lock my jaw
Just lock i I just want to say Good night not good bye
and I just want
to say
Open your eyes Open your eyes
and See The awakening
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up

Wake Up
Wake Up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Vague reflecting memories are shattered beyond repair Crippled within the stained reflections Our connection fusing us is thicker then I can tear fighting for how I feel Shattered though I am here
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
The awakening
The awakening
The awakening
The awakening
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
and see
The awakening
The awakening
