I Need Someone Like Me

George Strait

You're out there somewhere and you're crying
And I love you though we've never met, wait there for me
I'll recognize you, someone lonesome
Someone hurtin', someone blue, that'll be you
We'll help each other start all over
A tear for a tear, a shoulder for a shoulder
You'll be someone that's born to lose
'Cause I need someone like me to hold on too
We'll help each other start all over
A tear for a tear, a shoulder for a shoulder
You'll be someone that's born to lose
'Cause I need someone like me to hold on too
'Cause I need someone like me to hold on too
