Deliver Us to Evil

Exodus

in my grave down below hell's fire starts to glowmy prayers have now been heard by my lord, my god. master lucifer there is no life or birth when the undead walk the earth unholy blaspheme and torment are now set free.lead us into temptation a reign of terror will begin
we promise death, world's endincubus in the sky pentagram held high hell's filth hounds begin to bark the bells begin to tone virgin lies in blood the blood was once her own the redness and the horror of blood swept acro55 the land I stoodlead us into temptation a weigh of terror will begin
deliver us to evil
we promise death, world's endblack prince of hell in fire he reigns your god above wrapped up in chains there is no love when works collide
deliver us to evil
when god has diedI laugh while they cry their fears build up inside in their confusion they try to run but it's no use, my work is done slow death is the price for living such wasted lives their bodies they burn and bleed until they bow, my word they heed you've led us into temptation our reign of terror has begun deliver us to evil
prince of hell
satan's son
