

I Doubt It (feat. Blackbear & Skizzy Mars)

Travis Mills

I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable?

I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?

Baby, I doubt it I doubt it, gave you something you can't live without it

We hit some bumps in the road no other way around it And I've been trying keep in touch but you won't allow it
I heard you got a new man now, that you're super proud of Cool, but does he kiss you with the passion?

Does he get you off without you even asking?
Just tell me how you realize it

Cause I'm your city and I wouldn't mind a visit We don't have to fuck girl, we could just kick it
Cause I miss you and I mean it this time, that's the difference

I know I did you wrong, but we got something right
I can't leave you alone, don't have a reason why But if you two forgot then I'll let you go
Who you've been giving your love to? I just wanna know
But if you two forgot then I'll let you go

Who you've been giving your love to? I just wanna know I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable?

I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?

Baby, I doubt it Yeah, you hoping I get the message
Yeah, you searching for new directions
Yeah, you taking your mom's suggestion

And I moved on to the next shit Damn, you're colder than the North Pole
Order three more bottles, equal six more hoes

Dancing on the couch, gonna wash even more clothes
Snappin all these selfish, capturing squad goals Meanwhile,
Body upon

With some white girl that you can't find in the States
Back in 9th grade you can find me in some date She's not my favorite but I'm lying to her face

When you get caught you buy her another (?)
Keep quiet baby, diamond's in the safe

I know you (?) you ain't
Yeah I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable?

I'd like to know who you've been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?

Baby, I doubt it
