

Cherry Red

Big Joe Turner

Run here pretty baby, set down on your daddy's knee
I want to tell everybody, how you've been sending me
Now if that's your secret, you can keep it to yourself
'Cause if you tell me, I might tell somebody else I ain't never loved and I hope I never will Because a lovin' proposition will get somebody killed
Lead me pretty baby, 'cause you know I can be led Squeeze me pretty baby, until my face turns cherry-red
