

Leaves

Nikila

In winter, I fall at your feet
In summer, I blow where we meet
    And you, oh you
    You hold me up
    Till like a leaf we fall
    Onto the ground
    It's time for seasons to go
    A reason, a reason to know
    And you, oh you
    You hold me up
    Till like a leaf we fall
    Onto the ground
    In winter, I fall at your feet
    In summer, I blow where we meet
    And you, oh you
    You hold me up
    Till like a leaf we fall
    Onto the ground
    And you, oh you
    You hold me up
    Till like a leaf we fall
    Onto the ground
    Onto the ground
    Onto the ground
    Till like a leaf we fall
    Onto the ground
