

Great Big Kiss

New York Dolls

Okay, here we go
Give him a great big kiss Here comes my girl
Walkin' down the street
I see how she walks
She got a dancin' beat Big wavy hair
A just little too long
All day long
She's been singin' a song When I see her in the street
My heart takes a leap on, skips a beat
I gonna walk right up to her
Give her a great big kiss Tell her that I love her
Tell her that I care
Tell her that I always be there Hey, what color are her eyes?
I dunno, she's always wearing shades
Hey, is she tall?
Well, I gotta look up
Well, they tell me she's bad
She's good bad, but she's not evil Tell you more, tell you more
Tell you more, tell you more
I pick myself a sweater [Incomprehensible] match her eyes
Dirty fingernails
Oh boy, what a prize!
Dirty old hot pants A worn high button shoes
She's always lookin'
Like she's gonna blues When I see her in the street
My heart takes a leap on, skips a beat
I gonna walk right up to her
Give her a great big kiss Tell her that I love her
I tell her that I care
I tell her that I always be there
Tell her that I always be there Hey, is she a good dancer?
Waddy mean, is she a good dancer?
Well, tell me, how does she dance?
Close, very, very close Tell you more, tell you more
Tell you more, tell you more
I pick myself a sweater [Incomprehensible] match her eyes
Dirty fingernails
Oh boy, what a prize!
Dirty old hot pants A worn high button shoes

She's always lookin'
Like she's gonna blues
And when I see her in the street
My heart takes a leap on, skips a beat
I gonna walk right up to her
Give her a great big kiss
Tell her that I love her
Tell her that I care
Tell her I that always be there
I tell her that I always be there
