Searching

Lasgo

I'm searching for this place
Where I don't need to worry about you
Where I don't feel sorrow
I need to think about tomorrow or about you
I need a little time
So I can change my mind
(Yeah)
I need to be on my own
This loneliness feel strong
Deep inside of me
I'm searching for a long time
But I'm never gonna find what I'm looking for
I'm searching for a long time
But I'm never gonna find what I'm looking for
This is all I need, this is what I want
No I won't ask for more
And I don' really mind to leave this all behind
It doesn't feel like home
I'm searching for a long time
But I'm never gonna find what I'm looking for
I'm searching for a long time
But I'm never gonna find what I'm looking for
