

Flower

Amos Lee

My heart is a flower
That blooms every hour
I believe in the power
Of love Well, I'm dancin' on some meadow
Well, it's soft as a pillow
Whoa, I pray that we'll go back
To love I'm gonna preach on love over that fear
And whenever I'm alone, please be near
I know there's darkness before the dawn
Tomorrow's comin' and yesterday is gone Gonna give my baby a bit of strength
Fall asleep in her arms and drift away in the plain
Gonna go out walkin' in the mornin' light
Well, I know that my tomorrow gonna be alright
Gonna be alright Well, I'll never shout at her
Well, of course, I, I forgive her
Oh, please, Lord, deliver me
To love I'm gonna preach on love over that fear
And whenever I'm alone, please be near
I know there's darkness before the dawn
Tomorrow's comin' and yesterday is gone I'm gonna give my baby a bit of strength
Fall asleep in her arms and drift away in the plain
Gonna go out walkin' in the mornin' light
Well, I know that my tomorrow gonna be alright Gonna be alright
(Preach on love, whenever I'm alone)
Gonna be alright
(Preach on love, whenever I'm alone)
Gonna be alright
(Preach on love) My heart is a flower
That blooms every hour
I believe in the power
I believe in the power
Of love
Of love
