Between The Raindrops

Lifehouse

Ooh Ooh -
Ooh Ooh -
Ooh Ooh -
Ooh Ooh-
Look around
there's no one but you and me.
Right here here and now.
The way it was meant to be.
There's a smile on my face.
Knowing that together.
Everything that's in our way.
We're better than alright.
Chorus
Walking Between The Raindrops.
Riding the after shock beside you.
Off into the sunset,
living like there's nothing left to lose.
Chasing after gold mines,
crossing the fine lines we knew.
Hold on and take a breath,
I'll be here every step,
Walking Between The Raindrops with you.

[Natasha Bedingfield]
Take me now.
The worlds such a crazy place.
When the walls comes down.
You know, I'm here to stay.
There's nothing I would change.
Knowing that together
Everything that's in our way.
We're better than alright.

Chorus
Walking Between The Raindrops.
Riding the after shock beside you.
Off into the sunset,
Living like there's nothing left to lose.
Chasing after gold mines,

crossing the fine lines we knew.
Hold on and take a breath,
I'll be here every step,
Walking Between The Raindrops with you.
There's a smile on my face.
Knowing that together.
Everything that's in our way.
We're better than alright.
Chorus
Walking Between The Raindrops.
Riding the aftershock beside you.
Off into the sunset,
Living like there's nothing left to lose.
Chasing after gold mines,
crossing the fine lines we knew.
(Ooh, Ooh.)
Hold on and take a breath,
I'll be here every step,
Walking Between The Raindrops with you.
Ooh,
Between The Raindrops with you.
Between The Raindrops with you.
Between The Raindrops with you.
Between The Raindrops with you.
