(Forgive Me) My Little Flower Princess

John Lennon

Forgive me, my little flower princess
For crushing your delicateness
Forgive me, if you could forgive meForgive me, my little flower princess
For selfishness
Forgive me, forgive meWell, I know there is no way to repay you
Whatever it takes I will try to
The rest of my life I will thank you
Thank you, thank you, my littleIf you'll forgive me, my little flower princess
Never too late unless you can't forgiveTime is on our side
Let's not waste another minute
'Cause I love you, my little friend
I really love youGive me just one more chance
And I'll show you
Take up the dance where we left off
The rest of our life is the, my littleI'm home
