

In For The Kill

Black Sabbath

Thunder shattered the dawn
Raging with fury, the king has come
The power of terror will reign
There is no mercy in pleading In for the kill, no quarter be shown
Live for the thrill of battle alone
Blessed by the will to die for the throne
In for the kill, in for the kill Freedom is taken by storm
The blood on his hands is still running warm
The power of terror will reign
There is no mercy in pleading In for the kill, no quarter be shown
Live for the thrill of battle alone
Blessed by the will to die for the throne
In for the kill, for the kill In for the kill, no quarter be shown
Live for the thrill of battle alone
Blessed by the will to die for the throne
In for the kill, in for the kill Thunder shattered the dawn
Raging with fury, the king has come
Death and destruction riding the storm
Blood on his hands still running warm In for the kill the king has come
