

Crazy Doctor

Loudness

* Just when I thought my life was rising
The doctors left me here to die...
Trapped in a cage, locked in a prison,
Won't someone break this cursed lie!? These walls are cold behind the steel door
Hear me scream, I'm beggin to be free...
My senses wonder am I dead or alive
I hear the devil laugh at me Everyday no way out
Everyday nowhere to run
They're coming after me
Doctors with their pain... Take me away from here forever
*Repeat
Repeat
