Fix the World Up for You

James Morrison

I cant tell you now
Youre not here to listen to what Ive got to say
All my words unplanned
Just like us, they are waiting to come together
I dont know if were ready to take our chanceBut I, oh I, Im gonna fix this world up for you
Ill try, Ill try to build it all around you
Youre never gonna have to be alone
Youll always know youve got someone
To fix the world up for youWell, I bet Ill get it wrong
More times than Ill get it right
And I wont even realize it, no
But Ill be doing all I can to stop you falling
Even now Im holding my breath for youBut you dont know, you dont know
That Im ready to hold you now, hold you nowBut I, oh I, Im gonna fix this world up for you
Ill try, Ill try to build it all around you
Youre never gonna have to be alone
Yeah, youll always know youve got someone
To fix the world up for youWhen the world comes crashing down
Ill be there, yes you know I willGonna fix the world up, up for you
Gonna fix the world up, up for you
Gonna fix the world up, up for you
Gonna fix the world up, up for youGonna fix the world up
When it all comes crashing down
Gonna fix the world up
And there's nobody to take you home
Gonna fix the world up
When it all comes crashing down
