A Foggy Day

Lou Donaldson

I was a stranger in the city
Out of town were the people I knew
I had that feeling of self-pity
What to do, what to do, what to do
The outlook was decidedly blueBut as I walked through the foggy streets alone
It turned out to be the luckiest day I've knownA foggy day, in London town
Had me low, had me down
I viewed the morning, with much alarm
British Museum, had lost its charmHow long I wondered,
Could this thing last
But the age of miracles, hadn't past
For suddenly, I saw you there
And through foggy London town,
The sun was shining everywhereFor suddenly, I saw you there
And through foggy London town,
The sun was shining everywhereEverywhere
Everywhere
Everywhere
