

Reckless And Relentless

Asking Alexandria

Through sin and self-destruction I stumble home, never alone!
My only home is the bottom of a bottle and a rolled up bill and im ready to go!
I live the same day in and out and I don't care how long I last!
All the girls and drinks and drugs but dont get me wrong Im having a fucking blast.
I am rock and roll, living a life you can only dream of,
I am rock and roll at its fucking finest
Just like the cigarettes hurt,
Just like the whiskey burns, wohoa wohoa
I guess im never gonna learn (x2)
Not gonna stop until my heart stops beating
Not gonna sttop untill my last breathe comes,
Im gonna go until I hit the floor
Cant find a way back to my feet
Anymooooorreeee

Pass me a glass and lets destroy everything in this fucking place life at three hundred miles an hour you pussys cant keep up with this fucking pace
I am rock and roll, living a life we can only dream of,
I am rock and roll at its fucking finest
Just like the cigarettes hurt,
Just like the whiskey burns, wohoa wohoa
I guess im never gonna learn (x2)
Ive drunk the last time you stood here, your by my side, --> forgot the text, but i know it's different from whats here =), studied the booklet i got from AA
You thought that it should be just like the good old days of rock and roll --> same here
(ive spent the last few years tearing down my soul)
Without a drink, without regret without a second thought
You hit the nail on the head with the back of your fucking throat
I am rock and roll living a life we can only dream of
I am rock and roll at its fucking finest
[End]
