

Mona Lisa

Robin Thicke

Ima drive you crazy
Til you'll be my baby
Cause you're giving the signs
Just a matter of time
Til you're mine
So you stay on my mind 24/7
On my mind
And I keep reading into every one of your moves
Every little thing you thinking
Should I pursue you?
Should I pursue you?
On darling
So I start making plans
Take you out to slow dance
Light up a romance
Wrap your hands in my hands
Then I hold ya
And we get closer
And I want ya
And I wanna drive you crazy, love
How can I just let go?
If your eyes say yes
But you won't fall in love
If I were a painter,
You'd be my Mona Lisa
If I were a scientist, babe
I'd find the right chemistry
So you say yes to me
And I keep hanging on, hangin' on
Til you say yes to me, say yes to me
Say yes
Ima drive you crazy
Til you'll be my baby
Ima drive you crazy
Til you'll be my baby
So I'm back in my room
Yes, today's ended too soon
Way too soon
Staring at the canvas
Watchin' the time past by
I've got all my colors spread out around me
A glass of champagne is almost empty
Every stroke I make is a stroke on your body
Wound my mind through your hair
It's only you I see
So I start making plans
Light up a romance
Wrap your hands in my hands

Then I hold ya
And I want ya And I gonna drive you crazy, love
How can I just let go?
If your eyes say yes
But you won't fall in love If I were a painter,
You'd be my Mona Lisa
I'd find the right chemistry So you say yes to me
Say yes Ima drive you crazy
Ima drive you crazy
Til you'll be my baby Ima drive you crazy
Ima drive you crazy
