

Walk Away

World5

Yeah I know she smiled so sweetly
And she had you feelin' like a king
She tied you up so neatly
Now there's no more you and that's the thing Yeah it's turned around
It's not like it used to be
Boy you're on the ground
And now you're looking up to see
That she can Walk away from you
And there's nothing that can faze her
Walk away, it's true
She'll cut your heart like a razor
Yes she can walk away
And it really wont amaze her
When you come back for more
And you'll be back for more Now there's no more smiles
And she won't answer the phone
She sees you acting like a child
You can't even spend a minute alone And you wonder why
Then it pains you when you reflect
That it's no lie when she replies
You're no longer the man she met
And she will.. Walk away from you
And there's nothing that can faze her
Walk away, it's true
She'll cut your heart like a razor
Yes she can walk away
And it really wont amaze her
When you come back for more
And you'll be back for more She can walk away
And there's nothing that can faze her
Yes she can walk away
She'll cut your heart like a razor
Yes she can walk away
So dont try to chase her
Yes she will walk away
And you know you cant blame her
Yes she can walk away
And she will
No youll never change her

Yes she can walk away
And shell walk away from you Copyright 2011 Brunlieder Music, BMI
