Up To You

Bluey Robinson

You gave me your hand so long ago
But now our house is burning, you're never home
I feel sick looking at our picture frames
I turned them down and I turned you awayI wanna hear your words my whole life
But now they cut me like a knife
Hiding under the covers crushing dreams
Am I your lover or your enemy?At the end of the day
I never wanted it to be this way
You sure it's what you wanna do?
I'll leave it up to youI packed my heart in boxes yesterday
I fell asleep last night in my room all alone and afraid
'Cause my blood is cold and body is numb
Oh God what did we become?I feel you love to say that you don't miss me anymore
But anything I feel I choose to ignore
I pray that once my anger dies, I'll live
And once my tears are dry I'll learn to forgiveAt the end of the day
I never wanted it to be this way
You sure it's what you wanna do?
I'll leave it up to youI know the love we had was real at one time
And if you give me one more chance I promise to try
Seasons change, lovers bloom and some die
You'll always be part of my lifeYeah, at the end of the day
I never wanted it to be this way
You sure it's what you wanna do?
I'll leave it up to youAt the end of the day
I never wanted it to be this way
You sure it's what you wanna do?
I'll leave it up to you
