

Kiev

Vakula

He was a man just a simple man
His thoughts and pleasures were few
His bread he shared with his father
That was the life that he knew And how the snow fell in Kiev today
And how the wind drove the mourners away
Now there is only one man at the grave of Davorian
And this man's heart is too heavy to pray He was a man just a simple man
Died at the place of his birth
His tombstone shared by the family
A silent place on the earth An old man stands by the side of the grave
And this man's heart is too heavy to pray
For he is numb with the pain of the love that he couldn't share
Until he died there in Kiev today He was a man just a simple man
Died at the place of his birth
His tombstone shared by the family
A silent place on the earth An old man stands by the side of the grave
And this man's heart is too heavy to pray
For he is numb with the pain of the love that he couldn't share
And two men died there in Kiev today

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>