

Ride Home

The Shadowboxers

I

Well I'm so let down
It's the end of the night
And everybody's homeward bound
You
It's just you and me
Thoughts are creeping in my head
And I got nowhere to leave
Thoughts are creeping in my head
You'll be on my side tonight
No need to slow it down
You'll be my ride home
We could love for the sake of it
Forget the rules for now
You'll be my ride home
Or maybe just a bed
I wanna tangle up with you
And get up and go again
Take it slow
Cause we haven't got the time
I need to feel your shadow
And never press rewind
Oh, I need to feel your shadow
You'll be on my side tonight
No need to slow it down
You'll be my ride home
We could love for the sake of it
Forget the rules for now
You'll be my ride home
Tonight I need a dose
Just you and me alone
I think I'm ready now
To come back home

I

I'm so worn out
Yeah I'm done with the dialogue
Let's just get started now
Yeah I'm done with the dialogue
You'll be on my side tonight
No need to slow it down
You'll be my ride home
We could love for the sake of it
Forget the rules for now
You'll be my ride home
You'll be on my side tonight
No need for rules for now

You'll be my ride home
We could love for the sake of it
You'll be my ride home I'm so worn out
