Messages From You

Drake

[Drake]
I forgot about you last night for the first time in a long time I did I was caught up in these drinks they keep on making an amazin conversation with this girl named Lorraine who says shes from L.A.
who keeps makin me laugh and even asks if she can pay ooohhhh
She could be good for me (yeaaah)
This what you text me Tell me that you miss me
I forget about Lorraine and in fact shes right here with me and shes starin at my face something had to change thought that all these feelings went away (yeahh)I hate gettin messages from you (from you) Its like you know the perfect shit to say f-cks up my whole day thought that all these feelings went awayI hate gettin messages from you (from you) especially when you say you should've stayed
f-cks up my whole day
I thought that all these feelings went awayI hate the shit you do
I hate the shit you do
I hate the shit you do
I hate the shit you do
I hate the shit you do
I hate the shit you do
but I still text you back I miss you too
