

Shrink

The Notwist

It shifts you, grips you
Takes all your friends away from you
Say, face me, embrace me
Take all these friends away from me Are you here?
Two hours and two more
And you're near I get smaller 'cause I drive
Until I'm tiny, when I'm back at home
So tiny I can't even climb a chair I can't call you, I can't write
I can't reach the phone, can't reach the light
That's why I never, never wanna go from here
