Blank Sheets

Bel Canto

When we're discovering lies
Our pride will be in vain
Now, recirculate our thoughts
Make them new againWell, do you know where to start?
And do you see the end?
You're swallowing books
This is just like the lastAnd you're wasting your time
In searching for your past

Well, do you know where to start? And do you see the end? Ohh, ohh, ohhAnd when we return

You'll are ashamed

Because the promises of life We'll never forgetAnd all that you say Disclose what we are

We know our sheets will always

Maintain blankHey, yah, hey, yah, hey, yah, ohh, ohh Hey, yah, hey, yah, hey, yahWhen do you hide in your dreams Do you look behind?

Play around with the truth

Constructed in your mindWell, do you know where to start? And do you see the end? Ohh, ohh, ohhAnd when we return

You'll are ashamed

Because the promises of life
We'll never forgetAnd all that you say
Disclose what we are
We know our sheets will always

Maintain blankHey, yah, hey, yah, hey, yah, ohh, ohh, ohh Hey, yah, hey, yah, ohh, ohh, ohh
