

Songs About Me, Songs About You

Uncle Kracker

Well, you can move it on down the highway
You can turn another page
And when you finally get to the old folk's home
Then you can finally act your age I can make a million dollars
And you can spend it as fast as it comes
And you can sit there and cry on a bed full of lies
And be thinking that you got you some There'll be songs about me, there'll be songs about you
There'll be songs about everything from money to blues
But there won't be no songs of regret
'Cause I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
No, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet You can hear me on the radio
You can see me on TV
You'll have to dig you a hole just to find your soul
And get you a word from me You can run as fast as an hour glass
You can fly as high as the wind
See, you can be strong for as long as you'd like
But you'll end up right back where you've been There'll be songs about me, there'll be songs about you
There'll be songs about everything from money to blues
But there won't be no songs of regret
'Cause I ain't wrote no songs like that yet I've got a song for every occasion
I've been told I got a way with words
I've been told that I'd be loved forever
I've been sold on the lies that I heard I've been bold in my days, I've been gold in my ways
I've been packed up and rolled out and thrown out away
I belong to a song, for as long as I say
But I'll always have a song to play There'll be songs about me, there'll be songs about you
There'll be songs about everything from money to blues
But there won't be no songs of regret
'Cause I ain't wrote no songs like that yet There'll be songs about me, there'll be songs about you
There'll be songs about everything from money to blues
But there won't be no songs of regret
'Cause I ain't wrote no songs like that yet No, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
No, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
Baby, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
Oh, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet No, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
Baby, I ain't wrote no songs like that yet
