Fade Away

Pain

Press my face in this dirt
See how long I can hold my breath
Pour some salt in my wounds
I am just someone who doesn't fit in your worldHow can I smile with your gun to my head?
How can I reach out when you're holding me back?
I am just so tired of everyone who's trying to save me
Just save yourselfFade away
I wanna fade awayYou give me your hand, I don't want it
I'll rather drown on my own
You try to give me relief, I don't need it
I'll rather put the gun to my headBitterness is calling inside
I am already damned
The fire in my soul is slowly dying
You know my destiny calls my nameFade away
I wanna fade awayFade away
I wanna fade away
