Unstoppable

Keaton Simons

Ill be home again before you know it
All this careful thought has left you stoic
Ill be leavin, I believe its snowing on the east coast
Ill be goin, but I heard that its snowing out in Malibu
BABE CAN YOU believe that its snowin out in Malibu
When Im thinkin of you my love
I feel like anything is possible
When youre back in my arms again
I know that we will be unstoppable
Must be hard to be with me sometimes
Always tryin to see behind my eyes
Ill be leavin, I believe the sun is on the rise again
Should get rollin if Im going to catch my flight this afternoon
You know I really should be on that flight this afternoon
When Im thinkin of you my love
I feel like anything is possible
When youre back in my arms again
I know that we will be unstoppable
One look, one night, one lonely touch
The dark, the light, I miss you too much
Whats wrong, whats right, is never enough
No, its never enough
When Im thinkin of you my love
I feel like anything is possible
When youre back in my arms again
I know that we will be unstoppable
You know that we will be unstoppable
