"Trap Doors" (Arcadis Remix)

Broken Bells

Walk out before you make it worse on yourself
Now's not the time for that elegant laugh
Digress from the people
Once by your side
Once by your side
But now that it's over
You have to pick up
And just start again, start againFalling to earth
And you're calling it out
You're burning yourself and your challenge to winter
Gotta clip the lines and move for yourself
Just move for yourself, love
Now that it's over
You have to pick up
And just watch your back, watch your backAnd close your eyes to us
Fight fire
Trap doors to endless wisdom
Young lad, have we grown too tired
Longing to findLearned that in time
You want it to end
Your life at this temperature
Life under water
You gotta let these fools all trample themselves
They trample themselves, just dying to enter
You're preaching to the choir
So turn around, turn aroundAnd close your eyes to us
Fight fire
Trap doors to endless wisdom
Young lad, have we grown too tired
Longing to followAnd close your eyes to us
And fight fire
Trap doors to endless wisdom
Young lad, have we grown too tired
Longing to follow
