So Much for Love

Susanna Hoffs

Written by john hanes, pearl e. gates, peter charles dunne & hilary hanes
Produced by david kahne
Released on "when you're a boy" (1991)I got a marriage of convenience
I got the true cosmetic love
I got a set of circumstances
That only last as long as either party says it does.So much for love
So much for love
Just kiss it off the moment
You decide you've had enough
So much for love.I've got the freedom (so much) lover's commitment (so much)
I got the true contemporary attitude
I got the modern (so much) understanding (so much)
That anyone is free to come and go just as they choose.So much for love
So much for love
Just kiss it off the moment
You decide you've had it enough
So much for love, huh-huh.I got a contract to protect my labor
I got it worded so it always works out in my favor
Got no loose ends to untangle
I got a written guarantee that covers every angle.So much, so much for love
So much for love
So much for love
So much for love.So much for love (so much)
Don't ask me to try a little tenderness
So much for love (how much)
You won't see any tears on my pillow
So much for love (too much)
I don't care if your aim is true, no no
So much for love
Why do fools fall in love?So much, so much (in love), so much, so much for
So much, so much (so much for love), so much, so much.
