(We Just Need) Time

Ronan Keating

We just need time, baby
We just need time, babyI beg to kiss your heart, your hand, to kiss your mouth
I pray you'll look me in the eyes and share your doubts
I broke your heart a thousand times, let's work it out, please
I let you down but now I see without you there's no meWe just need time, babe, our love is getting back on track
We just need time, babe, I promise I'm gonna get you back
Give me a sign, girl, I'm having a double heart attackI've hit the town with all my friends but ain't no help
I need to find a way to prove there's no one else
If you don't take me back I'll spend my life by myself
I believe in you, believe in me, there's nothing we can't be'Cause we just need time, babe, our love is getting back on track
We just need time, lady, I promise I'm gonna get you back
Give me a sign, girl, I'm staying and baby, that's a fact'Cause I know we ain't through but I need you to see
That baby, you're coming with meWe just need time, babe, our love is getting back on track
We just need time, babe, I promise I'm gonna win you back
Give me a sign, girl, I'm having a triple heart attackWe just need time, babe, our love is getting back on track
We just need time, babe, I promise I'm gonna get you back
Give me a sign, girl, I'm staying and baby, that's a factWe just need time baby, time lady, time baby, yeah yeah
Time lady, time baby, time baby, yeah yeah
Yeah yeah[Incomprehensible]
