You Run Around (1998 Muscle Shoals)

Lynyrd Skynyrd

Every time I think I got it all figured out Then I draw a blank and my whole world crashes down
So many people have got it worse than me
But that could change tomorrow, ain't no guarantee(chorus)
How soon we forget
To count every blessing
If you think you got it bad take a look around
How soon we forget
That life is one big lesson
Still we make the same mistakes
time and time again
How soon we forgetGot a freind of mine who says he's run all out of luck
But he'll be fine,
'cause he just ain't drunk enoughThe world is empty when you're slammin' those shots downHow can you be happy, son when the devil's hangin' 'roundHow soon we forget
To count every blessing
If you think you got it bad take a look around
How soon we forget
That life is one big lesson
Still we make the same mistakes
time and time again
How soon we forget
How soon we forgetJust remember, thank God you're here today
If you got the will you can find a wayHow soon we forget... oh, baby
How soon we forget
To count every blessing
If you think you got it bad take a look around
How soon we forget
That life is one big lesson
Still we make the same mistakes
time and time againThere's a message to this madness here my freind Will we ever learn before the story endsSoon we all forget
How soon we forget
Soon we forget.. ooh

Take a look around and you will seeSoon we all forget... oh
So many people have got it worse than me
Oh.. can't you see How soon we all forget
