

Duchess

The Strangers

Duch of the terrace never grew up
I hope she never will
Broken down TV sits in the corner
Pictures standing still
Standing still

Duch of the terrace knows all her heritage
Says she's Henry's kid
Knows all her history in the family
Needs a man god forbid
God forbid

And it sounds like an empty house
Standing still
And it's quieter than a mouse
Standing still

Duch of the terrace never grew up
I hope she never will
Says she's an heiress sits in her terrace
Says she's got time to kill
Time to kill

And the Rodneys are queuing up
God forbid
And they all want to win the cup
God forbid

Duchess duchess
Duchess duchess
Duchess duchess
And the Rodneys are queuing up
God forbid
And the Rodneys are queuing up
God forbid
And the Rodneys are queuing up
God forbid
