He Gave the Sun to Shine

Aswad

Yellow sun show out your face,
Injustice is in this human race
Some living big while others living small
And they don't hear when the children call
Whoy whoy whoy whoy even if they're crying
Whoy whoy whoy whoy
The homeless need some shelterHe gave the sun to shine for all of mankind
He gave the sun to shine for all,
Everyone of mankind
He gave the sun to shine
For all those living in creation
He gave the sun to shine for allMister plenty showing nothing,
No love and kindness
For his fellow brethren,
He's got everything
And they've got nothing
And he knows they're in need
Of something now,
They want some food for their table,
Their backs need some clothing
I said you must be blind,
Can't you see mankind
When we read and discover ourselves
The injustice of this here government
The yellow sun don't hide away your face
Injustice in this human race
Some living big while others living small
And they don't hear when the children call
If they bawl,
If they cry now they need some food
For their children nowHe gave the sun to shine for all mankind
He gave the sun to shine for all
