

Brag, Exaggerate & Lie

Pennywise

I don't believe in you
Or what you say
The lies you're telling me are so insane
It's time for you to stop and quit it all today
So sick of watching you
Brag, exaggerate and lie
You're telling lies
I don't believe a thing you say
Exaggerate
You know it never was that way
You're bragging now
The truth is dead and bound
It's just your way
You brag, exaggerate and lie
Just like a smoke screen
Truth is hidden in between
The tales that you weave
Are ill conceived
Spare me the details
Your story's shot to hell
Down in a ball of flames you
Brag, exaggerate and lie
You're telling lies
I don't believe a thing you say
Exaggerate
You know it never was that way

You're bragging now
The truth is dead and bound
It's just your way
You brag, exaggerate and lie
Brag, exaggerate and lie
You brag, exaggerate and lie
Brag, exaggerate and lie
You can't believe yourself
Or what you say
The lies you're telling me are so insane
It's time for you to stop and quit it all today
The world is watching you

Brag, exaggerate and lie
You're telling lies
I don't believe a thing you say
Exaggerate
You know it never was that way
You're bragging now
The truth is dead and bound
It's just your way
Brag, exaggerate and lie
Brag, exaggerate and lie
