

Innocence Lost (feat. Tinashe)

Erik Hassle

Streets on fire
Been up for days
Under her spell
She takes me higher
Than anything, I've ever been Yeah, all this shit can change (always)
All this shit can change
She's my one desire
Stronger than anything, I've ever felt When she touch on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving, she punish me
Then she's all gone
When she touch on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving
Yeah, she's all gone
Melting pavements
She looks at me, fevered dream
You can't save me
She's everything, my concrete queen Ooh, all this shit you can change (always)
All this shit you can change
She takes me higher
Than anything, I've ever been When she touch on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving, she punish me
Then she's all gone
When she touch on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving
Yeah, she's all gone
You so high deep in secrets
I wear your crown of thorns
With the thickets
All your promises
You took my innocence
I can't go back again
You made me a believer
I wear your crown of thorns cause you Touched on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving, she punish me
Then she's all gone
When she touch on me and makes me dumb dumb dumb
And when I don't need all her loving
Yeah, she's all gone
