Memory Serves

Interpol

It would be so nice to take you
I only ever try to make you smile
No matter what
We're gonna keep you occupied
But only at your place
Only at your place
It would be no price to pay
I only ever lie to make you smile
All kinds of dust
Are gonna keep me satisfied
But only at your place
Only at your place
Tonight a special memory serves me
And I'll wait to find the wrong way
Tonight a special memory serves me
And I'll wait to find
It's over, it's over
Feels like, the feeling is like
It's over
Why is it so hard to stay away?
Tonight a special memory serves me
And I'll wait to find that I'm gray
Tonight is special
I only memorize those things I deny
And I forget why it'll sing, seize the day
Don't have to say that you'd love to
But they'd be pleased that you want to
Someday
It would be no price to pay
It would be no price to pay
Don't have to say that you'd love to
But they'd be pleased that you want to
Someday
Don't have to say that you'd love to
But they'd be pleased that you want to
Someday
You don't have to say that you'd love to
But they'd be pleased that you want to
Someday
