

It's Over

Ne-yo

Tired as hell and I cant catch my breath
Been fighting so long I just aint got nothing left, Are we done?
Cause I cant take it anymore, I just cant take it
Been so long since I was close enough to smell your smell
Youre telling me the love is still good, if it is girl I cant tell, Are we done?
Cause I cant take it anymore, said I just cant take it Oh girl there aint no tears to cry
I think its over, I think its over
We both know this love has died
I think its over, I think its over
Cause I just cant take it anymore You say in trippin when I tell you that weve changed
But your friends, my friends and everybody saying the same thing, Are we done?
Cause I cant take it anymore, I just cant take it
Ive been noticing the way you get dressed up to go to the store
And its right around the corner but youll be gone for an hour sometimes more
I aint the one, and I cant take it anymore, said I just cant take it anymore Oh girl there aint no tears to cry
I think its over, I think its over
We both know this love has died
I think its over, I think its over
Cause I just cant take it anymore just cant take it anymore We can be honest, we have no reason to lie
Baby we dont have to deny
Whatever happens we cant say we didnt try
Nothing for us to do now but say goodbye Oh girl there aint no tears to cry
I think its over, I think its over
We both know this love has died
I think its over, I think its over
Cause I just cant take it anymore.. Cause I just cant take it anymore
(Repeat 2X)
