

It Is Just What It Is

Guster

I've been sitting here for hours
Watchin' as this city's days unfold
The subway sends vibrations and carries them away I'm not gonna lie, or get hung up about
I stumble and fall and try to find myself a girl
Some things you change and then some things, they just resist All around the world, the saviors are saving
Movers move along
Soldiers parading to the click
It is just what it is
It is just what it is
I've never had much motion
Or drank the Kool-Aid potion
Or dreamed of situations to carry me away I'm not gonna line, I get strung out about
I stumble and fall and try to find myself a girl
Some things you can change and then some things they just persist All around the world, the saviors are saving
Movers move along
Soldiers parading to the click
It is just what it is Presidents and thieves on thrones and in cages
Shake their fists at god and her persuasion
It's a trick, it is just what it is
It is just what it is
It is just what it is
It is just what it is
It's just what it is
It's just what it is
