

You Can't Get Away

Shana

love begins
and when love ends
someone wins
when you lose
its not your choice
you can not chose

but i got to let you know
you got to feel the joy
i cant let you go
cause you were my only boy

i got to have the say
cause of what we had before
cant let you walk away
you cant walk out of that door

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
you cant get away

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
you cant get away

ah ah ahh

deep inside
it feels so warm
dont let it die

love was good
never bad

just like it should

you got to feel my joy
i cant let you go

cant let you walk away

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
you cant get away

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)

I'll do anything i can just to have you back again you know your the only boy i need you more then just a toy
to have you in my arms again

you know your the only boy that i love!

no you cant get away

you cant get away

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)

you cant get away

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
you cant get away
you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
you cant get away

you cant get away
no you cant get away (oooh ooh oh love)

I need you baby

you cant get away
no you cant get away

(i need your love)
