Real Thing

Unspoken

Turn me over, turn me over again
Turn me over, turn me over again
Turn me over, turn me over again
Hey boy, don't you know
That you're the only one for me
Oh baby, we contemplating 'bout the times we shared
Baby never leave, oh yeah
Even though it seems to me
Your love for me is true
I don't wanna ever be
The one you make a fool
Is this the real thing?
The once a love, my whole being
The one to give me everything
Is this the real thing?
Whatcha want?
Baby, why don't you take this
Message as a sign
'Cause every time I see you boy
You're blowing my mind
Let me take you higher
So we almost touch the sky
Tell me I'm the only one
That sparkles in your eyes
Is this the real thing?

The once a love, my whole being
The one to give me everything
Is this the real thing?
Is this the real thing?
Is this the real thing?
(Sugababes, Sugababes, on the run, on the run, no doubt, no doubt)
Even though it seems to me
Your love for me is true
I don't wanna ever be
The one you make a fool
Let me take you higher
So we almost touch the sky
Tell me I'm the only one

That sparkles in your eyes
Is this the real thing?
The once a love, my whole being
The one to give me everything
Is this the real thing?
Cannot believe, it's happening
Will you be truly outstanding?
Is this the real thing?
Is this the real thing?
(Sugababes, no doubt, Sugababes)
Is this the real thing?
(No doubt, Sugababes, break it down)
