

Hands (Devarra Remix) [feat. Devarra]

July Child

Please don't take this from me,
Please don't say you care,
In another world, you'd give your heart to another girl. Late at night, we cut through the floor,
Just to feel alive, we come back for more.
Late at night, we cut through the power lines,
All night, we come back for more. Let me see your hands (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Hands (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Heartbeats (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Hands (late at night)
Hands (all night) Please don't say you're sorry,
Please don't understand,
In another world, she'd give her heart to another man. Late at night, we cut through the floor,
Just to feel alive, we come back for more.
Late at night, we cut through the power lines,
All night, we come back for more. Let me see your hands in the air some more,
Feel your heartbeat sync four-to-the-floor,
Let's see your in the air some more,
Feel those heartbeats sink into the floor. To the floor, to the floor,
Feel those heartbeats sink into the floor,
To the floor, to the floor,
Feel those heartbeats sink into the floor. Let me see your hands (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Hands (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Heartbeats (late at night)
Hands (all night)
Hands (late at night)
Hands (all night) Late at night, we cut through the floor,
Just to feel alive, we come back for more.
Late at night, we cut through the power lines,
All night, we come back for more. Let me see your hands in the air some more,
Feel your heartbeat sync four-to-the-floor,
Let's see your in the air some more,
Feel those heartbeats sink into the floor.
