

Five Stars and Two Thumbs Up

Danielson

Thank you
For lending me your hand
For sharing time today
For giving that idea That made
It a nice and easy day So saying now thank you
For setting all aside
To treat me to some time With you
Where all you do Is listen hard
In my backyard Now thank you
For lending me your hand
For sharing time today And I pray that all your hopes
And dreams will fall in your place
And I pray that all your hopes
And dreams will fall in your place And I pray that all your hopes
And dreams will fall in your place
And I pray that all your hopes
And dreams will fall in your place Thanks, thanks, thanks, thanks
Thanks, thanks, thanks, thanks
Thanks, thanks, thanks
