

Safe Ship, Harbored

The Crane Wives

Watch me give up,
Honey, watch me give up
I swore I never would
But we've been wishing upon ourselves
Things that I forgot
I cannot do Where does your faith form
Where does your faith form in me?
Don't break the bottle
Don't waste your blessings on me I am a safe ship, harbored,
A safe ship, harbored,
Losing all of my good years to the shallow waters
I ain't proud
I ain't proud
I wasn't born a safe ship
Something wore me down All the places,
Honey, all the places
I'll never get to see
I'll always wonder what's across the tossing ocean
The world I'm at
Looks pretty flat to me Where does your faith form
Where does your faith form in me?
Don't break the bottle
Don't waste your blessings on me I am a safe ship, harbored,
A safe ship, harbored,
Losing all of my good years to the shallow waters
I ain't proud,
I ain't proud,
I wasn't born a safe ship
Something wore me down Where does your faith form
Where does your faith form in me?
Don't break the bottle
Don't waste your blessings on me Where does your faith form
Where does your faith form in me?
Don't break the bottle
Don't dare waste your blessings on me I am a safe ship, harbored,
A safe ship, harbored,
Losing all of my good years to the shallow waters
I ain't proud,
I ain't proud,

I wasn't born a safe ship
Someone wore me I am a safe ship, harbored,
A safe ship, harbored,
Losing all of my good years to the shallow waters
I ain't proud,
I ain't proud,
I wasn't born a safe ship
Someone wore me down
