Natasha Bedingfield

Just like a shadow
I'll be beside you
I'll be your comfort
And let it guide you home
I will provide you a place of shelter
I wanna be your zone
Tell me what to do
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make you great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
Who will never promise to leave her man
Making vows to please her man
If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
Protect you from the pain
I'll keep you safe from danger
You'll never hurt again
I'll be your A N G E L
I'm gonna be your A N G E L
I'll be your angel
Just like the moon
I'll step beside
And let your sun shine
While I follow behind
'Cause baby, what ya got
It is with all the props
With everything I'm not
Tell me what to do
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make you great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
Who will never promise to leave her man
Making vows to please her man
If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
Protect you from the pain
I'll keep you safe from danger
You'll never hurt again
I'll be your A N G E L

I'm gonna be your A N G E L
I'll be your angel
Tell me, why there's so many good men?
And the world's misunderstood
He's a dog, he's no good
I wish somebody would Disrespect my man
You're gonna have to come see me
I go hard for my baby
He's all that I need
So if you got a good one
Put your hands up
Come on, girl, and stand up
Go ahead, lift your man up, get up
If you got a good one, put your hands up
If you got a good one, stand up
Come on, girl, and stand up
If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
