Grow Up

Chromeo

I know you've had enough
But now it's time to listen up
You say you got it rough
But you're keeping your anger bottled up
Our love is so unique
We never have the decency to speak
And it's been over a week
And you still won't tell me what you want from me
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo
And I'm not asking for much
But just a little bit of clarity with us
'Cause if we can't be grown ups
Then we won't grow up
I know you've had enough
But now's the time to listen up
You say you got it rough
But you're keeping your anger bottled up
And something ain't right
When you're up and crying in the middle of the night
Two wrongs won't fix a fight
But if we get to talking we just might
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo
And I'm not asking for much
But just a little bit of clarity with us
'Cause if we can't be grown ups
Then we won't grow up
Ooh, I guess I'm feeling alone again
Ooh, I guess I'm feeling alone again
Ooh, I guess I'm feeling alone again
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo
A-aye-yo
Way-a-aye-yo

I'm not asking for much
But just a little bit of clarity with us
'Cause if we can't be grown ups
Then we won't grow up
