Another Lover

Troop

We started out as friends
You did everything to please me
To show that you wanna be my lover
And now you wanna dis' me
I never meant to hurt your heart
And leave you all alone I've tried to change your mind
But you're never comin' homeShe don't want to excuses
She won't even change her mind
She's steppin' on my heart
And I still hear her cry you lose
(You lose) you lose
(You lose) you lose
Ooh no, and then she saidI think it's time for you yo find another lover
You see I've got mine and I don't want no other
She broke my heart and left me for another
She just don't want my time
She left me for another loverWe used to be so close
We did everything under the sun
How could she let me go
I thought I was the only one
She said I think it's time for you
To find yourself another lover
How could I be so blind she don't want my love no more
