

This Year

Andreas Moe

This old water, this old water's drown within
When I'm falling, I keep falling down
I feel borders, I feel borders fence me in
There are dreams I need to draw
So my feet can hit the floor This year I'll make the best of what I'm given
This year I'm gonna say I did instead of no I didn't
We'll make the rules up as we go
And break them as we go
This year I'll find a hand that I'll hold on to
This year I'll find a heart that I can say that I belong to
We'll make the rules up as we go
Everywhere we go
Oh Anywhere we go
This new rhythm has a vision I can feel
I keep climbing, I keep climbing up
I know freedom, I know freedom's always here
There are dreams I need to draw
They could be mine, they could be yours This year I'll make the best of what I'm given
This year I'm gonna say I did instead of no I didn't
We'll make the rules up as we go
And break them as we go
This year I'll find a hand that I'll hold on to
This year I'll find a heart that I can say that I belong to
We'll make the rules up as we go
Everywhere we go
Oh anywhere we go
I'll dive into the deepest rivers
Where everything is new to me
Where nothing's what it used to be
Mistakes along the way we'll deliver
I'll follow them to where they lead
Cause the risk is worth the dream This year I'll make the best of what I'm given
This year I'm gonna say I did instead of no I didn't
We'll make the rules up as we go
And break them as we go
This year I'll find a hand that I'll hold on to
This year I'll find a heart that I can say that I belong to
We'll make the rules up as we go
And break them as we go

Oh anywhere we go

...

Oh anywhere we go

...

This year I'll find a hand that I'll hold on to

This year I'll make the best of what I'm given
