

Entering

Soundgarden

I'm entering without a sound
I'm entering on wings I've found
A million miles of covered ground
I'm entering, entering
Well, I'm entering Well, I'm entering without a sound
I'm entering on wings I've found
A million miles of covered ground
I'm entering, I'm entering
Well, I'm entering
I'm entering
Bleeding hearts, two lights, goodness, stable
Glass on bars won't hold me back
Without a sound or a thought
I'm entering, I'm entering
Oh yeah, a mile without a sound
Now I'm entering, entering on wings I've found
A million, million miles, a million miles
Well, I'm entering, entering, entering, entering, entering, entering, entering
