Temple Of Everlasting Light

Kula Shaker

Will I ever see the pleasure that will never end?
Hidden in the misty forest that desire sends
Mesmerized like fireflies that are falling through a flame
If I wait I'll be too late to holler out you're nameIf I wait another day to travel to the east
Time may prey upon me dance upon me with it's feet
Hidden in the temple they are building to the sun
Hidden in the forest, hidden figure with a gunI have waited to be here
Now I feel you, I feel you near
Take me home
